

STUDENT ARMY VANGUARD ARRIVES

Influx Which Will Fill Normal Has Begun—Faculty Meeting Is Opening Feature

The vanguard of the student army at Eastern Normal was recorded Saturday morning, more than a score arriving from remote parts of the state. Most of the early arrivals are those residing in portions of the state not affording the best train facilities, thus compelling the to start early in order to make the trip, since Sunday trains in some localities are almost unknown, when small town accommodations are considered.

There was a surprise in store for Miss Marie L. Roberts, dean of women, who has been arranging a schedule of accommodations and placing the students along the line of reservation. Long before the week was finished she discovered that the number for this time of the year exceeded that of former years by many. It is believed the opening of the cottages for the first time in the school's history for this purpose will be necessary in order to accommodate the large number. This indicates another very successful year.

The arrivals are expected to increase during Sunday, and Monday is expected to be a big day, since there will be an influx, according to the enrollment, that will tax the efforts of the entire receiving service. The buildings were never in better condition and there has been a constant reporting of faculty members, returning from their summer work. Few of them enjoyed a vacation, almost everyone engaging in some special work during the summer. All teachers have reported and the faculty is complete and prospects are good for another record-breaking term.

The list of studies is greater, the lines of special entertainment and training more extensive and there will be a line of sports introduced that will appeal to all. The first faculty meeting, in preparation for the start the first of the week, called to order on schedule time Saturday afternoon by President T. J. Conates, who also presided, was productive of much interest, instruction and enjoyment. There was a meeting of the members of the faculty, who had an opportunity to exchange greetings and discuss the work before them. It is believed by the officers that the corps of instructors and faculty as a whole is the most complete and competent while it is known to be the most extensive in the school's history.

The regular studies will be well under way the first week and the various branches will be taken up by the newcomers as the week advances. All have been properly assigned, with the exception of those not reporting the special lines desired, and this will be done upon their arrival. The unusual attendance speaks well for the efforts of the officers and instructors of the university during the campaign for patronage and the highly successful year closed some time ago is placed on record as one very complimentary to all.

K. OF P. DEGREE TEAM IS COMPLIMENTED BY VISITORS

There were a number of visitors at the last meeting of the local Knights of Pythias lodge who complimented members of the degree team conferring the third rank on a number of candidates. There was to have been a big list of men to take this degree; however, several found it impossible to be present. The team, which is just getting well organized since the war, is doing what is termed most excellent work and there will be much of it done, according to the petitions for membership being received. There were a number of applications received and there will soon be considerable business at the meeting on next Thursday night. The membership of this organization is receiving an unusual impetus throughout the country. However, there are few making better records than the Richmond lodge.

HEAVY FROST 19 YEARS AGO TODAY IN RICHMOND

"Speaking of frosts," said L. C. H. Covington, "I will remind you that 19 years ago today there was a heavy frost—one that wrought great damage to corn and what tobacco there was at that time, although the production was nothing, as I remember, to what it is at present." Mr. Covington said also that a heavy frost at this time would not only play havoc with tobacco, but would certainly be very injurious to corn, since stalks are very green and still growing, owing to the continued rains.

BELIEVE BOMB MEN WILL BE CAPTURED

(By Associated Press)
New York, Sept. 18.—Confidence that the American anarchist fighters, who it is believed caused the disastrous explosion in Wall Street Thursday, will be brought to justice soon, was expressed today by Chief Flynn, of the Bureau of Investigation of the Department of Justice. Flynn, who is in charge of the investigation of the explosion which killed 36 and injured 200, and caused property damage estimated at several million dollars. It is certain from the similarity of circulars found in a mail box near Wall Street at the time of the explosion, to those found upon the scene of various bomb explosions in June, 1919, that the same crowd of terrorists is responsible for both outrages. The circulars demanded the government's release of political prisoners or "sure death for all of you."

FINLAND-SWEDEN ACCEPT FINDING

Paris, Sept. 18.—Finland and Sweden have agreed to accept the finding of the League of Nations council for a settlement of their dispute over the possession of the Island of Aland. It is the first time since its organization the League has been asked to arbitrate between two nations in an endeavor to avoid war and is regarded as a long step toward the recognition of the League by nations of the world as a medium for the prevention of future wars. The council expects to reach an early decision.

HARDING TELLS FOREIGN BORN ABOUT THE LAWS

Marion, Ohio, Sept. 18.—Warning against dangers of hyphenated citizens, Senator Harding told a gathering of foreign-born Americans here today he believed the United States must avoid meddling with the affairs of other nations if all classes of American citizens are to be united loyally to the government. The republican nominee said he did not blame the foreign-born for conflicting sympathies during the war, but did blame the nation itself, because it had not thoroughly Americanized them. The government must take up Americanization work with more determination, he said.

LOWDEN CANDIDATES LEADING IN ILLINOIS PRIMARY ELECTION

(By Associated Press)

In the republican senatorial race, with 321 precincts missing, Congressman William McKinley, Lowden candidate, is 19,995 votes ahead of Congressman Frank L. Smith, Thompson man.

DEATH OF MISS EMBRY

Miss Mary Embry, 68, died Saturday at her home at Waco after having been ill for some time of apoplexy. Funeral services were arranged for Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Richmond cemetery, Rev. O. O. Green officiating. Miss Embry is survived by two sisters and one brother, John Embry, of Oregon.

BLANTON CHANGE

Progress on the streets is rapidly approaching on East Main street, and commencing the first of the week the streets in front of L. R. Blanton's coal yard will be completely torn up, making it impossible for the entrance fronting on Main street to be used until the concrete is laid. Mr. Blanton is fortunate in having two entrances, one also facing on Irvine and B streets, which will be used during the time the streets are closed against traffic. Mr. Blanton says he is willing to send his teams and workmen to help any of his customers who might have their wagons stalled and will assist in the hauling of purchases made at their coal yards. Don't forget the back entrance is open to the public commencing Monday and all orders will be taken care of promptly.

TWO RICHMOND MEN TO GO UNDER KNIFE

Government Hospital Opens Monday and the First Operations Are Booked For That Date

The first operations at the new government hospital department, established at the Pattie A. Clay Infirmary, as a result of the establishment of a hospital unit, will be performed Monday, an two young men from Richmond will be the first to go under the knife, according to the plans of Dr. O. F. Hume, who has arranged for the opening. They will be Rodes Terrill and Oscar Stanifer, and the treatment will be for hernia.

These young men were among the big list presenting themselves at Ft. Thomas, Ky., in 1916, during the Mexican trouble, when volunteers were called for. There is a coincidental feature that has been manifested throughout several years past connecting these two ex-service men. They found themselves together at the recruiting station, both eager to go to the Mexican border. They were examined and refused service, and this disappointing fact was recorded by a Richmond man, Mr. Stone Norman, now secretary of the Home Service of the Red Cross, who was assisting mustering officer at Ft. Thomas during the uprising. The young men returned home and later, during the year 1917, when the German menace developed, again went forward, with very similar results, although they finally succeeded in getting into the service. While the proposed operations are said to be serious in a way, it is not believed there will be cause for great apprehension as a result.

There will be others booked for operations in the near future when the establishment gets under way, since there are many who are especially desirous of receiving treatment, since they have found that this will be possible at home instead of being sent from home, to which many had a deep aversion.

WOMEN'S BONDS RAISED TO $12,500

Mrs. Lizzie Finney and Miss Florence Turpin Waive Examining Trial In County Court

Saturday morning in the Madison county court, Mrs. Lizzie Finney and Miss Florence Turpin, charged with obtaining money under false pretenses, waived examining trial, and the case will be referred to the grand jury which meets next month.

The bond of Mrs. Finney, placed at $5,000 at the time of the arrest a few days ago, was increased to $10,000. There was an effort upon the part of County Attorney O. P. Jackson and Attorney A. R. Burnam, assisting in the prosecution, to have the bond of both women increased. However, the intervention of Attorney C. C. Wallace and W. T. Short, for the defendants, resulted in the bond of Miss Turpin remaining at $2,500. The bond was arranged in the office of County Judge W. K. Price, who presided, by J. H. Turpin, father of the defendants.

The charges were filed by Mrs. Sarah Finney, mother-in-law of Mrs. Lizzie Finney, who asserted in the affidavits that the latter, by fraudulent statements, caused her to believe she and her daughter-in-law were being secretly sued and their reputations were to be ruined and perhaps both sent to the penitentiary in case money was not provided, whereupon, she asserts, she sold a farm and gave Mrs. Lizzie Finney a check for $15,316.70. Mrs. Sarah Finney asserts also that Miss Florence Turpin, sister to Mrs. Lizzie Finney, who was present at several of the conferences, corroborated the statements of Mrs. Finney, and that later, she was persuaded into giving $4,000 additional. One of the charges is jointly against the women, and the other, for the greater amount, against Mrs. Lizzie Finney individually, as the receiver of the money. The latter has stated she never received the $4,000.

Mrs. Lizzie Finney, who has been residing in Akron, O., for some time, returned to Estill county with her father and sister, after the settlement of the bond.

TURKISH FEZ DISAPPEARS WITH MARCH OF PROGRESS

(By Associated Press)
Constantinople, Sept. 17.—With the crumbling of Turkish authority and influence, the fez, the badge which all Turkish subjects, Christians, Jews and Turks alike are supposed to wear, is rapidly disappearing. Although the Moslems still wear their fezzes in the streets, they no longer cling to them slavishly indoors. Soon the Turks may be wearing hats with brims in Constantinople. Moslems in other parts of Turkey insist the Mohammedans in the capital lost their religion long ago through their desire to imitate the infidels.

Morris Calico, 24, and Miss Ona Wallace, of Cartersville, were granted license to marry. They were 24 and 23 years of age, respectively.

The attendance in school has not been so good during the past two weeks because of tobacco cutting and sickness in the community.

AMERICAN LEGION IS GROWING FAST

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 18.—In the past year the American Legion has settled claims aggregating $10,000,000 in favor of former soldiers and sailors or their dependents, according to the annual report of National Adjutant Lemuel Bolles which will be submitted at the national convention of the Legion which convenes in Cleveland September 27.

Of this amount, claim totalling more than $1,250,000 were adjusted by the service division of national headquarters, where only complicated cases are handled. The remainder were settled by the service officers of the state departments and of local posts. Of the 9,700 post in the Legion, more than 8,000 now have service officers.

This one feature of Legion activity has been one of the best drawing cards for new memberships. Since November, 1919, Mr. Bolles' reports shows the Legion has grown from 4,000 posts in 50 departments to 9,700 posts in 70 departments. The enrolled membership has passed the 2,000,000.

UNITE ALL EFFORTS TO SOLVE MYSTERY

Senator Brock Here With Bludgeon That Killed Teacher—Noted Sleuths At Work

While the grand jury at Harlan which has been investigating the mysterious slaying of Miss Lura Parsons, a young school teacher near Dillon, has adjourned until Monday, there is no let up in the work of investigating the heinous crime, and reports have it that there will be some sensational developments during the next few days. Special detectives from Cincinnati have been employed on the job of ferreting out the perpetrator of the crime, and they are working night and day, it is said. There are many noted persons interested in the developments, since they assert they will leave no stone unturned to fathom the mystery and bring the guilty to justice.

Among these is Senator H. M. Brock, who has been very actively engaged in the work of investigation since the reporting of the crime. The special detectives are being rendered all assistance possible, and they are advancing along a line of investigation that may be productive of interesting developments at any time. One of them especially is recognized in Cincinnati and other large cities as being one of the shrewdest workers and solvers of mysteries in the country. He has been offered more lucrative work, together with a title in the official world, by one of the great detective agencies, but has refused, being desirous of doing all good possible in his home and vicinity.

Senator Brock, accompanied by J. J. Tye, of Barboursville, was in Richmond en route to a northern city. They had in their possession the piece of rail, or tough slab of wood, with which it is almost positively known the unfortunate woman was beaten to death. This ghastly trophy is to be minutely examined for various reasons and full directions and instructions are in possession of those in charge of the bludgeon. This examination may develop an indirect or even a direct clue, but this is all that is known of this phase of the case at this time.

STORE OPENING

Muncy Brothers' branch store at Berea opened Friday morning and a stream of visitors thronged the store throughout the day. These boys made an extensive advertising campaign throughout that section and the people of the community responded liberally. The opening continues throughout Saturday and a great deal of interest is being manifested in the drawing, which will be held at 4 o'clock, when a beautiful rocking chair will be given away. Friday a splendid aluminum set was given to one of the visitors at the store during the day. The visitors were entertained with music and a splendid feeling of friendship was made by the Muncy Brothers. On Monday evening arrangements have been made to give a recreation concert with Edison artists presenting the program, which appears on another page in today's paper. The people of Richmond and community are especially invited to attend this free concert Monday evening.

Circuit Court Docket Will Be Extensive

There will be the usual number of miscellaneous cases heard during the next term of the Madison Circuit Court, comprising damage suits, larceny cases, and a number which, it is said, will be piled up as a result of the investigation by the grand jury, which will be in session for some time, so reports go. It is claimed there will be quite a list of cases for this body to investigate. There, added to the list, will make the term a busy one, judging from present indications.

The popular favorites amongst the pacers this year are the three wonderful mares, Margaret Dillon, unbeaten, owned in Massachusetts; Juno, that has lost but one race, owned in Ohio, and Princess Mary, beaten but once, owned in Canada. No year ever saw three like them and they will meet in the Cumberland state at Lexington, October 6. In that race, however, there are eleven other winners, including the stake winners Lillian S., Edna Early, Symbol S., Forest and Drift Patch.

HARDING AND HOOVER

Herbert Hoover, who occupied the commanding position in the United States and the world until jealous republicans tricked him into a declaration of partisanship, takes issue with Harding on the declared purpose of the nominee if elected to make a separate peace with Germany.

As one of his bags of tricks to catch the German vote, already organized in his behalf, Harding stated that among his first acts as president would be to sign a resolution for a separate peace with Germany. Hoover is moved to contempt of the republican nominee's ignorance of international affairs.

Many of the matters growing out of the war between the United States and Germany, which still continues, could not be settled by a separate peace with Germany even if we desired, he says, as Germany has surrendered her power of contract in many items to the other signatories of the treaty. He continues: "Aside from a few articles touched by the reservations, I have heard no suggestion that these articles should be drafted otherwise than they appear in the treaty. It is not likely that any foreign policy would ask the world to risk its stability by reopening the whole treaty in order to re-enact the great bulk of unobjectionable articles."—Winchester Sun.

BASEBALL AVERAGES

Chicago, Sept. 18.—George Sisler the St. Louis star, broke the tie which he shared last week with Tris Speaker, the Cleveland Indians' manager, and is topping the American League batters with an average of .399, according to averages released today, and which include games of Wednesday. Speaker is seven points behind with an average of .392, while Joe Jackson, then lagging outfielder of the Chicago White Sox, stands third with a mark of .378.

"Babe" Ruth of the New York Yankees, the home run marvel who is hitting in fourth place with an average of .372, cracked out three home runs since Wednesday a week ago and brought his string of circuit drives to 49, one less than the mark he set out to reach when the season started. He also carried his total base record to .347 and is far in front in the number of runs scored, having registered 147 times.

Other leading batters for 75 or more games: E. Collins, Chicago, .365; Meusel, New York, .339; Judge, Washington, .339; Jacobson, St. Louis, .337; Rice, Washington, .335; Weaver, Chicago, .332; Felsch, Chicago, .331; Tobin, St. Louis, .331; Hendryx, Boston, .331.

The former dropped a few points, but continued to head the National League batters with an average of .371, while Hornsby in gaining a few points brought his average up to .360. The rest of the leaders remained practically the same. Hornsby hoisted his total base record up to .277, while Bancroft, New York, increased his string of runs to 91. Williams of Philadelphia failed to add to his home run total of 14, and Carey of Pittsburgh failed to add to his stolen base record. He has stolen 48 bases.

GLAD TO TESTIFY

Wagon Lady, "As To What Cardui Has Done For Me, So As To Help Others."

Wagon, W. Va.—Mrs. S. W. Gladwell, of this town, says: "When about 15 years of age, I suffered greatly... Sometimes would go a month or two, and I had terrible headache, backache, and bearing-down pains, and would just drag and had no appetite. Then... It would last... two weeks, and was so weakening, and my health was awful."

My mother bought me a bottle of Cardui, and I began to improve after taking the first bottle, so kept it up till I took three... I gained, and was well and strong, and I owe it all to Cardui.

I am married now and have 3 children... Have never had to have a doctor for female trouble, and just resort to Cardui if I need a tonic. I am glad to testify to what it has done for me, so as to help others."

If you are nervous or weak, have headaches, backaches, or any of the other ailments so common to women, why not give Cardui a trial? Recommended by many physicians. In use over 40 years. Begin taking Cardui today. It may be the very medicine you need. NC-128

TAXPAYERS ARE BUSY THESE DAYS

The manner in which Madison county farmers are settling their tax accounts is making big business at the office of Sheriff Whitlock, and Mrs. Edyard Warford, wife of Deputy Sheriff Warford, has been pressed into service as an assistant with the work incident to the listing and receipting of taxes. The manner in which responses are being made indicates the books will be in good shape by the time the period for tax paying expires, which is the last day in November. There is a certain percentage of the county residents, it is said, who are a little late regarding the payment of their taxes. However, prospects are good for the bulk of the business to be over within a period of a few weeks.

The returns regarding the tax reports at the office of Commissioner Ben Powell also indicate an unusual interest being given this by the residents of the county who are coming in steadily with reports, thus making the work of filing very satisfactory. Owing to the fact that there are more than 8,000 to be recorded, a continuation of the reports as they have been coming in during the past week will render the work in good shape before the final days, when there is usually a rush upon the part of the belated taxpayers.

WORK LATE AT NIGHT IN MAKING REPAIRS

L. B. Waters, new superintendent of paving, together with a number of aides, was a busy man Friday night while the moon was shining brightly upon the finished work of the day on the street. The work was continued long into the hours of the night, but the men kept at the task until it was finished. It was the repairing of a number of breaks in the machinery which occurred during the latter part of the day. This work would have held up the entire job, it is said, if some men had been in charge, but not so with the young manager, who stated that "night was the time to get this work done—after the others had finished their work for the day. The repairs were all made, with the result that all of the machinery was in working order Saturday morning and everything going shipshape.

"We can't afford to waste any of this time when there is no rain," said Mr. Waters, while assisting with the work of repair. "This amounts to something, and we want to show the people that we are here to get this work through as soon as possible. Of course, there are many breaks expected with machinery of this character working steadily, but there is no use of losing any time; if you are not afraid to go to work yourself after the other men are through for the day."

FEARFUL OF FROST TOBACCO HURRIED IN

If you are a man, most any kind of a man, and want to hustle, it will not be necessary to venture far into the country, since there is a most vigorous effort upon the part of tobacco producers to get their crops into the sheds, fearful of a frost. The temperature has been watched closely by many and some state that there has been "near frost" several mornings, and the mercury is dropping steadily these nights, and the producers are apprehensive. While it is a fact that much tobacco is being cut green, considerable is being damaged by the heat after having been hung in the sheds, and some are building fires beneath the hanging tobacco in order to dry it out, it is said. There is a demand for charcoal that is unusual, but it is not to be obtained in small quantities.

WEED PRICES LOW IN NORTH CAROLINA

Col. Jas. H. Pearson Writes Interesting Letter About Tobacco Markets In South

Col. James H. Pearson, the well known young auctioneer of Richmond, who is selling tobacco on the North Carolina tobacco breaks, writes the Daily Register an interesting letter on conditions there. Prices are "way off" he says and the growers are not pleased.

Col. Pearson will be heard on the Richmond breaks during the coming season. He will sell for the Madison warehouse. What he says of conditions in North Carolina will be read with interest. He says in part:

Enfield, N. C., Sept. 11, '20.
Mr. S. M. Saufley,
Richmond, Ky.

Dear Sir:

I am getting the paper all O. K. and enjoy reading it after working hard all day.

The markets down here are very unsatisfactory indeed. Farmers bring their tobacco in and let it pass over the sales and after finding that it hasn't paid for growing it they reject it, load it on their wagons and haul it back home, saying that if they have to cut it out next year they will just keep this one at home and have one to start on when tobacco gets high enough to pay them for growing it.

On September 7th, I was on the opening sale at Rocky Mount, N. C. There was but little tobacco on the market and the buyers didn't seem to want it at any price hardly. On the 8th our opening sales, we sold 110,000 pounds at an average of 22 1-2 cents per pound compared to an average of 70 cents on opening sale last year.

Thursday, the 9th, it seemed as though the farmers wouldn't sell any more tobacco at the prices and we didn't have any sales, but Friday morning they ran in with about 90,000 pounds that dropped to an average of 16 1-4 cents. The buyers seem to feel about as bad it as the farmers and warehousemen. They say that they know that the farmers can't produce it for the money. A meeting has been called at Wilson, N. C., Tuesday for all warehousemen and others interested in the tobacco industry, to discuss the situation. Farmers are up in the air down in this country, having assaulted buyers and closed warehouses in places.

There is some talk of closing the warehouses for 30 days. I don't know what they will decide on.

I am scared for the Kentucky growers, for I know that the conditions that prevail with the high price of land and labor. It is quite a curiosity to see the farmers down here hauling their tobacco with one steer and an old fashion ox cart, and the way they handle their tobacco. When I can get time I am going to write and tell you all about it and send you some samples of the tobacco.

The Far East is said to offer great possibilities for United States trade if it were developed, say missionaries and tradesmen from there.

RELIEF SOON FOR BOOK SHORTAGE

Music, Spelling and Geography
Soon To Be Taken Up—
Books Are En Route

With two train loads of geographies reported as arriving at Cincinnati, one said to be scheduled for this state, the situation in the city and county schools will soon be relieved, it is believed. This is the first heard from the books, said to have been shipped some time ago. There is an acute shortage; in fact, no books of the kind in some schools. The shortage in this study is retarding the progress of students now at work along other lines.

There is also a total absence of spellers, it is said, as well as music books, and these lines, too, are being practically eliminated from the regular course of study. We are no worse off than other states, however, which have adopted the new books, since none have been delivered elsewhere. The situation is one that has never before confronted the school boards, and there is considerable confusion, owing to the fact that unless special stress is laid upon these subjects to make up for lost time, there may be lower averages when the examination of students is made. There has been a constant demand for the books, although it is known generally none are to be had. When the supply arrives it is the opinion of instructors that there will be a supply sufficient for all. Reports are current to the effect that the books in some instances have been held up, but the fact that they have started insures them in the near future, according to the belief of many who are eagerly awaiting them.

Millions On Speed Contest

(By Associated Press)

Chicago, Sept. 18.—Millions of dollars are at stake on a speed contest now in progress in Illinois and Iowa. The corn crop is from two to four weeks late in the territory named and is racing to escape frost. If the feat is accomplished, the yield is expected to be a record breaker, but if success is not attained the inevitable damage resulting will be on a correspondingly high scale. The issue may be decided at any time now in a single night, for the average date of the first killing frost is September 25.

THE METHODIST CENTENARY FUND

Winterset, Iowa, Sept. 18.—It cost over four per cent to secure the $113,000,000 of the Methodist Centenary fund, Bishop Homer C. Stuntz, resident bishop of Omaha, told the annual Des Moines conference of the Methodist Episcopal church here today.

He said that $710,000 had been allotted from the centenary funds for caring for negroes that had come up into the north.

"Hundreds of thousands have come to the north with nothing," he said. "They simply swamp little churches provided for the small negro populations which were living in the northern centers before these floods started from the south."

He reported that $300,000 had been appropriated for "good will" industries in large cities. "These industries," he said, "place clothing, furniture, boots and shoes and loving human fellowship at the disposal of tens of thousands in our crowded centers."

SCHOOL CARNIVAL
DATE IS HELD UP*Big Event Will Take Place Soon
As Streets Are Completed and in Condition

At the recent meeting of the county school board, the matter of setting a date for the school carnival was taken up, but not decided upon, owing to the condition of the streets. The date for the occasion will be set at soon as the street work is completed. The members of the board felt that to have the carnival with the streets torn up would not be a wise thing, should inclement weather prevail, and they will await the finish of most of the work at least. The plans are being completed and there will be new and original features in the event. There will be a parade, it is expected, and prizes given for the work displayed by students, the co-operation of the city school students and a gala day generally. The city will be turned over to the school scholars of the city and county, together with their parents and teachers.

It is being planned to make this the most extensive and auspicious ever held here and there will be many visitors from out of the city, since there have been many inquiries regarding the nature of the event. Madison county is said to be the originator of the carnival, and the children are all anxious for the details regarding the affair. They will be able to come to the city for the day and participate in the big event, which is given for their benefit and pleasure.

CUSHING PREDICTS
$4 SOFT COAL BY DEC.

Bituminous coal prices will continue to decline throughout the country until a stable price of about $4 a ton is reached in December, according to George H. Cushing, director of the National Wholesale Coal Association, so stated in Washington. However, he does not think there will be any decline in anthracite prices.

Mr. Cushing insisted that the declining price for bituminous coal has resulted from relief from the panic started in the trade by the prediction of a famine. Already this panic condition has died down and the prices have dropped he said. By December, he predicted, the market would be settled and the bottom level of prices would be reached.

Mr. Cushing said that he had always insisted that there would be no coal shortage. He said the production this year would be greater than any other year, except one year during the war, when a great surplus was produced.

"They are bidding $5 for coal in New England today, I understand," he said. "Once they were bidding $15 and $16 and even $18 for coal. They were paying the highest prices ever paid in this country. Now, I don't know what is happening elsewhere—for instance, I don't know what is happening in Louisville—but I mean that with the decline today in New England and tomorrow in other cities, and so on, the general average decline will continue until we reach a basis of about $4 or so a ton in December, a price which should always have been paid."

A revival meeting will begin at the Salem church Saturday night, September 18.

CLEARING HOUSE
FOR INSTRUCTORS*Largest Number of Teachers
Ever Turned Out In Single Year Is Now Recorded

The examination of a number of petitioners for licenses which began Friday morning ended at noon Saturday and it is probable that the county school faculty will be increased considerably. While the number taking the examination was not the largest in years, there were a number of energetic young women who thus pledged their interest to the furthering of education here if successful in their examinations. This will close the examinations for Madison county for the year.

It is estimated that this has been the most prolific year in the history of the county in the way of school teachers and that the record is equalled by few, if any county, in the state of Kentucky. There is a large percentage of local teachers doing instruction work elsewhere, in some of the schools in other counties the faculties being made up largely of Richmond and Madison county teachers.

The papers will be forwarded by County Superintendent B. F. Edwards to Frankfort immediately and it is probable those passing will be able to have schools positions offered them immediately. While most of the quota in Madison county is filled, there is a great demand for teachers in other schools of this and other states and there will be no dearth of positions for those desiring to take up the work. There are few local teachers doing work outside of the state, although there is a very liberal sprinkling throughout the state. In Louisville there are more than a score—while Covington claims a much larger list from Madison county alone. The teachers have been loyal to home work, many of them refusing to go to other cities, although offered an increase in salary. Some of the newly diplomated teachers, however, have taken important positions, in greater cities and there has not been a single instance of a failure reported. While there were many failures during the earlier examinations, there were many who made special preparation and were successful at subsequent examinations held here and elsewhere.
